BEST MCCS 2022 TO PARTY AND TOAST

If you like sparkling wine and already know sparkling wine, crémant, spumante, cava, and Champagne will find something new here: fine quality sparkling wines from South Africa, which have been produced in the classic bottle fermentation method (Méthode Champenoise). Because these MCCs can rival the sparklers from the northern hemisphere at any time and get every party going! Whether birthday parties, company celebrations, Christmas or New Year, in terms of price/enjoyment ratio, you get so much more from South Africa!

FACT #30 - WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN VEGAN AND ORGANIC WINE?

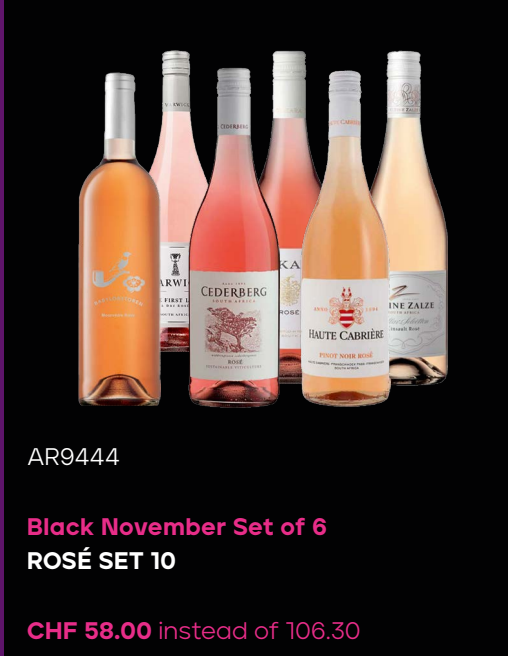

Not all wines are vegan and not all wines are organic. We open the doors to the secrets of the wineries to define what a vegan wine is and what distinguishes it from an organic wine.

Wine is made from grapes, and many people think that it should be vegan by nature because it is 100% plant-based. But there are also people who believe that grapes are not treated in organic wine. Both statements are incorrect.
